

The National Housing Federation's exhibitions offer a superb meeting place for the sector and an excellent opportunity for those involved in the provision of housing to explore the latest products, services and information relevant to their work.

All the exhibitions have grown considerably over recent years and a number are open to visitors as well as to delegates who attend the accompanying conferences.

To find out more about visiting an exhibition please contact Foremarke on 020 8877 8899 or email housing@foremarke.uk.com
